SUSPICIOUS PERSON CLAIMS TO BE LAW ENFORCEMENT

FARMVILLE, VA - At approximately 2:30 p.m. on Friday, October 16, 2015 two females reported that while at the bus stop in the Food Lion parking lot, they were approached by a man who engaged them in conversation and claimed to be an “officer.” The subject was not in uniform, never claimed to be with any specific agency, and did not display a badge or other identification. The witnesses inferred from the conversation that the man was claiming to be a law enforcement officer. The man offered the females a ride to their residence, which they declined. The man then walked away. Witnesses described the individual as a black male between 40 and 50 years old, wearing grey sweatpants, a grey sweatshirt, and a black Under Armour ball cap. He was further described as being physically fit, approximately 6’ tall with medium brown skin, and having a short haircut. Any person with information about this or any similar incidents is asked to call Detective Entrekin of the Farmville Police Department at 434-392-3332.

If claims to be a law enforcement officer seem dubious or raise suspicion, citizens are encouraged to ask for appropriate identification. All Farmville Police Officers carry their badge and a department issued photo ID when engaged in law enforcement activities.
