4th Coffee and Conversation

FARMVILLE, VA - Chief Curtis Davis and the Farmville Police Department would like to invite you to have “Coffee and Conversation” with the Farmville Police Department on Thursday, March 24, 2016. Chief Davis and other members of the department will be at Uptown Coffee Cafe, located at 236 North Main Street, beginning at 4:00 p.m. This will be an opportunity for the general public to meet with their local police officers and discuss a variety of topics.

This will be our fourth informal gathering and the first one held in the evening. It is designed to facilitate communication with the community in a relaxed setting and will be continued periodically throughout the year at different locations.
