

We have an adventure for everyone in the family!

The last chartered college established while America was under British rule. One of Virginia's oldest private colleges-turned-public universities, Farmville-Prince Edward County is home to the cultural richness embodied in our two institutions of higher learning.

Hamden-Sydney College, founded in 1775, and Longwood University, established in 1839, have been producing leaders and enriching the culture of Farmville-Prince Edward County art venues throughout the community delight, amaze, and instruct enthusiasts with culturally-diverse creations.

Art galleries and studios in and out of town will inspire the visitor to take up pens, brushes, or play in the clay to create your very own designs.

Culture

Whether you shop our largest merchants or look to one of our rural villages for an intimate shopping excursion, when you come to Prince Edward, expect the unexpected.

The Heart of Your Shopping Adventure

Your shopping adventure begins here at the flagship location for Green Front Furniture. With over 800,000 under British rule. For the more rustic getaway, cabins, cottages, and camping on public and private lands offer spectacular vistas of our lakes, picturesque forests, and woodland life without skimping on convenience or comfort.

Your Bucket List. Our Hospitality. The Heart of Your Adventure.

Hospitality

Southern hospitality originated in Virginia. Here in the heartland, "we're so glad you're here" is more than an expression; it's a tradition. It's who we are.

Outdoor Adventures

The great outdoors in Farmville-Prince Edward County is an adventure all its own.

- Four Virginia State Parks invite guests to spend their visit in pursuit of camping, fishing, hunting, hiking, biking, and horseback riding.
- Golf is king at Farmville Municipal Golf Course, Longwood University's nine-hole course at Longwood House, and The Manor Golf Club, home to an 18-hole links course.
- Wilk's Lake is home to the Sarah Terry and Dogwood hiking trails and, for the more adventuresome, try Farmville Skateboard Park or the Outdoor Adventure Zipline Park
- Some of the best fishing, boating, canoeing, and hunting in Virginia are available at Sandy River Reservoir, Briery Creek and Bear Creek Lakes, Twin Lakes State Parks, and along the Appomattox River as it makes its easterly trek through Farmville and Prince Edward County.

Come explore Farmville-Prince Edward County for the next American era. Farmville-Prince Edward County is the Heart of Your Adventure.

Heritage

Prince Edward County and the Town of Farmville were formed, respectively, in 1754 and 1798. Come visit where some of the most critical moments of American history have taken place during our two centuries of existence:

- The last battles of the American Civil War at Sailor's Creek Battlefield Historical State Park;
- The last struggle between the Union and the Confederacy for control of High Bridge 1.25 feet above the Appomattox River;
- The fight for equal education for all at the Moton Museum, a National Historic Landmark.
