Arrest Made In Reported Robbery/Assault

FARMVILLE, VA – The Farmville Police Department has made an arrest in an alleged Robbery/Assault Offense that was originally reported on April 17th, 2016, in the 800 block of Buffalo Street. Patrol Officers and Detectives developed a possible lead in the case in the days following the reported offense. Detectives traveled to Waynesboro, VA to conduct a follow up investigation into the incident.

Detectives, in consultation with the Commonwealths Attorney's Office, determined that the known circumstances of the alleged robbery was actually more indicative of a petit larceny offense.

Based on the investigation, David G. Oliver, age 20, of Waynesboro was charged with Assault and Petit Larceny. The investigation is ongoing and anyone with information is encouraged to contact Detective Sergeant Chris Moss.
