NO SHAVE NOVEMBER RAISES $790 FOR CANCER RESEARCH

FARMVILLE, VA –

The Farmville Police Department recently participated in No Shave November to raise money for cancer research. On November 1st, General Order # 303 was temporarily suspended by Chief Ellington and officers, who donated $50 were allowed to grow their beards for the entire month. An invite was also made to citizens and together they raised $790 for cancer research.

“Cancer has affected all of us in some way and we hope that the money raised will help find the cure. I’m very proud of my fellow officers and our department for participating in this great program” said Officer Tim Holtz, the programs coordinator.
