POLICE INVESTIGATE MOTOR VEHICLE CRASH INVOLVING PEDESTRIAN

Farmville, VA. – The Farmville Police Department is currently investigating a motor vehicle crash involving a 2010 Honda CRV and a pedestrian. The crash occurred just north of the intersection of Clark Street and South Main Street, Tuesday evening about 8:46 p.m.

The 2010 Honda was traveling north on South Main Street, when two pedestrians attempted to cross the street. One of the pedestrians was struck by the oncoming SUV.

The pedestrian, a white female, age 31, was transported to Centra Southside Community Hospital with severe, but non-life threatening injuries. She was later transported to the University of Virginia Medical Center.

The crash remains under investigation at this time.
