Farmville Vice Mayor Re-elected to Virginia Municipal League Executive Committee

Farmville, VA – A.D. “Chuckie” Reid, vice mayor of Farmville, was recently re-elected to serve as a Member-at-Large on VML’s Executive Committee for 2019-2020.

Reid’s first term on Town Council began in 1986; he is currently serving his second term as vice mayor. He chairs the Personnel Committee and serves on the Town Property/Building Committee.

Vice Mayor Reid worked for the U.S. Postal Service in Farmville for 29 years until his retirement this year. He attended Southside Virginia Community College and served four years in the United States Air Force.

VML Executive Director Michelle Gowdy shares, “We are so pleased that Chuckie will continue to serve on our Executive Committee. His many years of service have contributed greatly to the success of our organization.”

VML is a statewide, nonprofit, nonpartisan association of city, town, and county governments established in 1905 to improve and assist local governments through legislative advocacy, research, education, and other services. The collaboration of localities of various sizes and demographics enables VML to develop comprehensive programs and policies to improve life across Virginia.
