No Shave November

If you see the members of the Farmville Police Department looking a bit scruffy during the month of November, it's for a good cause. The department is participating in "No Shave November". For a donation of $50, any officer can forego shaving for the month and all money raised is donated for cancer research. Citizens can also participate by sponsoring an officer and making a $50 donation. "It's a great way to promote awareness and to raise money for cancer research," according to Chief Ellington. For more information, contact the Farmville Police Department at (434) 392-9259.

Feeding Farmville

Feeding Farmville is a community project of St. John's Lutheran Church. They will be delivering free Thanksgiving Day meals to anyone within 30 miles of Farmville. For more information on how you can help with volunteering, donations or to receive a meal, call the church at (434) 392-1875 or email secretary@stjohnsfarmville.org.
